Working with Avista

Avista is committed to corporate integrity, responsible sourcing, and the safety and wellbeing of workers across its supply chain, and holds its Contractors to the same standards that Avista adheres to with respect to its own Employees. Avista's expectations are described in this Contractor Code of Conduct ("Code"). Avista is committed to a culture of trust and respect centered around diversity, equity and inclusion. Avista values diversity of backgrounds, experiences, and ideas. A fundamental expectation for Avista is upholding the highest standards of ethical, social and sustainable conduct. These principles apply to all aspects of Avista's business, and encompass all businesses, organizations and individuals that provide the goods and services Avista uses in its business operations.

Contractors are an important extension of Avista's operations and are expected to conduct themselves in a professional manner that avoids damaging or potentially damaging Avista's reputation. As such, Contractors' commitments to ethics and compliance are essential as Avista and Contractors work together to provide clean, safe, and reliable energy to customers in Avista's service territories.

Contractors should discuss any questions or concerns about compliance or ethics issues with their Avista contact. Alternatively, questions or concerns can be reported, by phone, to Avista's Confidential Message Hotline at 1-877-861-6690 (the "Hotline") or electronically to <https://avistacorp.ethicspoint.com>. Note: The Hotline is available 24/7 and provides a means of anonymous reporting, if desired.

Applicability and Compliance

This Code sets forth the standards ("Standards") that must be met by all Contractors including, but not limited to contractors, subcontractors, manufacturers, agents, distributors, suppliers, and third parties of every tier (each a "Contractor" and collectively "Contractors") that provide service for, sell goods to, or do business with Avista. Contractors are responsible for ensuring:

- This Code is shared with all individuals assigned to perform work for or on behalf of Avista; and
- Any work performed for or on behalf of Avista is done in full compliance with this Code, the contract between Avista and Contractor, all applicable laws and regulations, and with the highest standards of integrity.

Contractors are responsible for compliance with both the terms and conditions of their contract with Avista, and the Standards set forth in this Code. This requirement extends throughout each Contractor's operations including:

- All of Contractor's facilities where goods and/or services destined for Avista are manufactured, distributed, packaged, performed, or otherwise handled ("Facilities"); and
- All of Contractor's operations, including construction, manufacturing, distribution, packaging, sales, marketing, product safety and certification, intellectual property, labor, immigration, health, worker safety, the environment, etc.

Contractors are also responsible for compliance with the Standards set forth in this Code throughout their own supply chain, including their suppliers, agents, and subcontractors (“Partner(s)”) and the Partners’ respective Facilities.

Compliance with Laws and Code of Conduct

Contractors shall comply with all applicable federal, state and local laws and regulations. Where this Code of Conduct requires Contractors to meet a higher standard than set out by law or regulation, Contractors shall meet such heightened requirements.

This may include supply chain audits (including, but not limited to, supply chain audits for product safety, labor and human rights and environmental stewardship) and inspections of Contractor’s Facilities should Avista, in its discretion, deem necessary. Contractors understand that this Code sets out audit Standards that Avista may use to determine whether Contractors are meeting the requirements set out in this Code. Avista has no obligation to conduct inspections or audits. Failure to comply with the expectations set forth in the Code may result in termination of the business relationship (including any contracts) with Avista.
